Re: HB91 Labor and Employment – Labor Organizations – Right to Work - Support

Dear Delegate Davis:

Passing a Right to Work law in Maryland would be a significant stride to have Maryland viewed as a more business friendly state. Currently, at least 22 states have passed Right to Work laws, including Virginia, a neighboring state. Many sources view Maryland as one of the less desirable states in which to locate a business due to its many onerous laws and regulations that make it difficult and unprofitable to conduct business. Furthermore, to deny citizen's their rights as to which organizations they wish to belong, or wish to contribute, is uniquely un-democratic and contrary to the premises on which our country was founded. The Legislative Committee of the Carroll County Chamber of Commerce whole-heartedly supports this bill.

We therefore ask that your committee give this bill a positive report.

Sincerely,
