RE: HB 0841 – Labor and Employment - Maryland Wage and Hour Law - Agricultural Stands, Retail Farms, and Farmers' Markets – Support

Dear Delegate Davis:

This bill will establish an exemption from the minimum wage for an individual employed at an agricultural stand, a retail farm, or a farmers' market that primarily sells agricultural products that the employer has produced.

This exemption would be in line with existing exemptions for many agriculture workers and others. Such an exemption would be a strong positive for our state's family-owned farms and the accessible and affordable farmers' markets operated throughout the state.

The Carroll County Chamber of Commerce, a business advocacy organization of over 600 members, supports this bill. We therefore request that you give it a favorable report.

Sincerely,
